Charles E. Boyk Law Offices Names David Kaiser as Good News, Good People Winner

David Kaiser was recently chosen as the latest winner in the “Good News, Good People” Contest. Good News, Good People is a year-long program, sponsored by Charles E. Boyk Law Offices, that honors ordinary citizens who make a positive impact in their community.

Anonymously nominated, David was chosen because of his dedication and help with the Western Avenue Family Center, formerly known as the Western Avenue Baptist Church. The family center has been serving Toledo’s south end for over one hundred years. They hold two services a week, Sundays at 5 p.m. and Wednesday’s at 6:30 p.m., but what they do does not stop there! Western Avenue Family Center also provides groceries, hosts free dinners six days a week, provides counseling to those in need, and they also have an after-school program.

David Kaiser, the pastor of Western Avenue Family Center, oversees the entire operation. He works with other volunteers throughout the area to provide hope to those in Toledo. The area in which they are trying to focus their efforts is from “the high level bridge to the zoo, and the river to the trail, which is about 6,600 households,” said David.

One of Western Avenue Family Center’s main focuses is young children from ages 0-5 years old. Specifically, they want to focus on how they can help children so one day they can go off to college and receive a good education. They started “Baby University” in September 2010 and had roughly 60-70 parents enroll children. They hope to continue the Baby University and help the children progress through the different education levels.

According to David, you have to start helping your child’s education at a young age. “The first step is from when the children are in the age range 0-5 years old - read to them for at least fifteen minutes a day. This can go a long way in their learning and vocabulary. Second, provide the appropriate health care for your children. If you know they may have asthma or some kind of medical condition, make sure they have the appropriate care and medicine they need. And the third and final step is to teach the parents how to properly discipline their children,” said David.

"David's dedication to helping people is what the Good News, Good People contest is all about. He is working to build up the people of Toledo and to give them hope despite of their circumstances," said Charles E. Boyk.

We were happy to nominate David for all of his help and support in with the Western Avenue Family Center! If you would like to volunteer or learn more about the Family Center, please call David at 419-344-5844 or visit <http://www.wamteam.org/> for more information!

About "Good News, Good People"

The "Good News, Good People" contest is a year-long program sponsored by Charles E. Boyk Law Offices. Here's how it works:

- If you know someone who goes above and beyond to better their community, nominate them to win.
- Nominate anyone who has a great story to tell—the volunteer at the local food shelter who puts in more time than anyone else, the teacher who stays late to help students with homework, the child who donated his or her allowance money to charity or anyone else who makes Northwest Ohio a better place to live.
- On the first and third Monday of every month, the Charles E. Boyk Law Offices will announce one person as the newest winner and we will share their story with the community.
- Each winner will receive a prize pack valued at over $100 that is tailored to the person's story and interests. The winner will also receive a certificate commemorating their win.
- Nominators will be entered into a drawing for a "feel-good" prize of their own.
- Visit <http://www.goodnewsgoodpeople.com/> to download a nomination form and to read the stories of past winners.
