Charles E. Boyk Law Offices Names Harvey J. Steele as Good News, Good People Winner

Harvey J. Steele was recently chosen as the latest winner in the “Good News, Good People” Contest. Good News, Good People is a year-long program, sponsored by Charles E. Boyk Law Offices, that honors ordinary citizens who make a positive impact in their community.

Nominated by his daughter, Kara Steele, Harvey was chosen because of his drive to never give up. Fourteen years ago Harvey was given less than a week to live. Hepatitis C, which he contracted through a blood transfusion, had wreaked havoc on his liver. Then, a miracle happened – he received two live-saving liver transplants in three days. Since then, he has taken his second chance at life and ran with it!

Harvey now co-hosts K100’s award-winning morning radio show, Shores&Steele. He uses his local celebrity status to showcase the importance of registering as an organ donor. He has put in countless hours of volunteer work for Life Connection of Ohio, the local non-profit organ procurement organization, as well as the American Red Cross. Harvey has lent an ear to other transplant recipients, guiding them through the process, answering some of their questions, as well as a source of comfort to many of the donor families.

Countless people are now registered organ donors because of his efforts. “Attending recognition ceremonies and having someone on stage, go up and say that they decided to be a donor because of my story is really touching,” said Harvey.

Through Shores&Steele he is able to announce certain events for families, like spaghetti dinners for a cancer patient, or activities such as blood drives. Not only does Harvey announce these different events on the radio, he also personally attends 50-75 events a year.

“Life handed Harvey a lemon and he made lemonade out of it. He has overcome his health adversity, and is a fantastic role model for all of us,” said Charles E. Boyk.

We were happy to nominate Harvey for all of his help and support volunteering in Toledo. If you would like to become a registered organ donor please go to www.donatelifeo.org for more information!

About “Good News, Good People”

The “Good News, Good People” contest is a year-long program sponsored by Charles E. Boyk Law Offices. Here’s how it works:

If you know someone who goes above and beyond to better their community, nominate them to win!

- Nominate anyone who has a great story to tell—the volunteer at the local food shelter who puts in more time than anyone else, the teacher who stays late to help students with their homework, the child who donated their allowance money to charity, or anyone else who makes Toledo a better place to live.
- On the first and third Monday of every month, the Charles E. Boyk Law Offices will select one person’s story as a winner.
- Each winner will receive a prize pack valued at over $100 that is tailored to the person’s story and interests. The winner will also receive a certificate commemorating their good news story.
- Nominators will be entered into a monthly drawing for a “feel-good” prize of their own.
- Visit www.charlesboyk-law.com to download a nomination form and to read the stories of past winners.
