- Mytrice nominated her son for Bikes for Kids, and since the program is run by small business owners, it made sense to award Kamaree’s diligence with a brand new green and black BMX bike during week #8. NBC 24 and 13 ABC were there to capture the bike award and Kamaree’s smiles as he rode around and told his story.

“Kamaree is such a hard worker,” Mytrice Sanders, Kamaree’s mother, said. “He’s maintained the honor roll all year long and enjoys helping everyone in need. When he saw a flyer for Assets Toledo and asked if he could do it, I just had to call and ask them since I took the class in 2009. They ran down with me and with him and allowed him to participate. For 13 weeks, Kamaree never missed a class and was really engaged and understood everything. He created a business plan and learned all about building a business from the ground up. We are really proud of him. He does all of the work himself, including loading and unloading the lawn mowers.”

“My granddad taught me how to start cutting grass,” Kamaree told news reporters. “My mom and dad would take me to cut lawn so I just wanted to start my own business. The best part of starting the lawnmower is the vibration when it starts.”

Chuck Boyk, founder of Bikes for Kids, was excited to see Kamaree’s efforts pay off. “To see a kid so young have such a strong passion for working for himself is awesome,” said Chuck. “We know that Kamaree will go on to do great things in life with everything he has already learned about responsibility, determination, and a strong work ethic.”

Started by Charles E. Boyk Law Office in 2009, Bikes for Kids is a program that gives away one bicycle each week of summer from Werdell’s Bike & Ski Shop. While there are no specific guidelines on what makes a nominee deserving of a new bike, we encourage nominators to think about how the child has positively impacted his or her family, friends, community, or classroom. The program is always in need of nominations and they may be submitted by visiting www.BikesforKidsToledo.com. If you would like to hire Kamaree or make a donation to his business, call 567-288-6253 or visit his Facebook page, LittleManWithBigDreams.

Bikes For Kids Weeks #3-7 Highlight Strong, Resilient Kids Who Give

Week #3
Elliot Bechler, 5
“Elliot started coming to Little Village Preschool when he was three years old, and has shown great improvement in his behavior and social/emotional development,” Jeannette Bechler wrote in her nomination. “We have worked closely with his family and an outside behavior management agency, and we are very proud of the progress that he has made over the past couple of years.”

Week #4
Christian Roscoe, 9
“This little boy has Agepey’s and is the smartest, kindest boy I have ever met,” Christian’s grandmother, Carol Roscoe, wrote in her nomination. “He cares about others, and is helpful in any way he can think of, taking classmate’s under his wing. He was very proud of his achievement in the Special Olympics this year.”

Week #5
Bryson Palmer, 7
“Bryson is a true fighter and inspiration, especially at such a young age beating cancer and undergoing a double lung transplant,” Ack Rammany wrote in his nomination. “He continues to show what true strength is.”

Week #6
Aunesti Sullivan, 11
“No matter what, Aunesti stays in good spirits [while waiting for a bone marrow transplant],” Helen Scott, Aunesti’s mother, wrote in her nomination. “No matter where is she, in or out of the hospital, people are amazed with how she is able to stay in good spirits in spite of what she goes through.”

Week #7
Kyler Koopmans, 8
“My son has a huge heart!” April McDonald, Kyler’s mother, wrote in her nomination. “Almost every weekend you can find him in front of our house selling lemonade to add money to his jar for the dogs [to buy dog food for Lucas County Canine Care]. Kyler has donated five times so far and just loves it.”

Home Health Aide Ends Up With Two Broken Legs After ATV Accident
Our client was on the property of one of her home health aide clients when his dog got loose. The client’s son told her to get on the ATV with him to catch the dog, then ended up crashing the vehicle. The impact caused our client’s thumb after she was struck by someone who ran a stop sign on Route 25. In the emergency room, x-rays were performed on her right ankle, spine, and right hand, where the fracture was discovered. She still needs to wear a brace while whether or not the need for physical therapy is determined.
