Lawsuits Filed Against Apartment Complex For Pond Deaths

Ohio News Network Friday 13th December, 2013

COLUMBUS, Ohio - The families of two drowning victims filed two lawsuits on Friday against Hartford at the Lake apartment complex. The lawsuits describe how more than an hour passed before 5-year-old Elijah Walker was pulled from the freezing waters of the icy pond at Hartford at the Lake apartments in February. The complex is located at 2400 Shore Boulevard in Columbus. James Jenkins rushed into the water to try to save Elijah when by-standers called for help. Jenkins, 30, held the boy up until the cold water overtook him. Jenkins died at the scene. Elijah was taken the hospital and put on...
