LOCAL PIZZERIA DEDICATED TO SERVING MORE THAN JUST MADE-FROM-SCRATCH FOOD

Jeremy Miller at Rival's

When Jeremy Miller started his first job at Little Caesar's Pizza at the age of 16, he knew that someday he wanted to open his own pizza place.

That dream finally became a reality in December 2008 when he opened the doors of Rival's Pizza, which Jeremy describes as a "good old-fashioned neighborhood pizza parlor that you would remember as a kid and small enough to give that little bit of extra quality and service that you deserve."

The difference isn't just in the fact that everything is made from scratch, like their garlic-infused pizza dough or their marinara, but more so because of what Jeremy does for the local community.

Rival's offers pizza by the slice to cater to students at nearby Start High School with the intention of giving them a safe, inexpensive place to hang out after class.

This past summer Jeremy and his customers took up donations for a local family who needed help paying for medical equipment. Even after the first round of donations was stolen, he still raised the money a second time.

When Jeremy discovered that Blessed Sacrament, a church two blocks over, was using jarred sauce in the lasagnas that their youth group was making for the homeless, he stepped in and became the "Sauce Guy." From then on Jeremy provided big pots of homemade marinara for them to use at no charge.

But perhaps the most impactful difference that Rival's has made is in the life of Kevin McKenty, a 2012 Start graduate and Special Olympian who works at Rival's twice a week.

"Kevin is amazing," Jeremy said. "He can talk sports better than anyone I know and he keeps us all in check. He is the coolest, even though he is an Ohio State fan!"

When Boyk Law wanted to throw a pizza party for Start High freshmen who passed all four of their core classes first quarter, the obvious choice to feed all 220 students was to order from Rival's.

"There is nothing better than using a local restaurant that gives back to their community," Chuck Boyk said. "Rival's was thrilled to help us reward the same kids that often patronize his pizzeria and they were fast, reasonably priced, and delicious. And since I grew up in Rival's neighborhood, I am especially proud of their success."

Start High seniors Monica Rodriguez, Samantha Trenchik, and Joely Fry share Rival's pizza

Where: 2115 W. Sylvania Avenue, between Upton and Douglass.

Hours: Sundays-Thursdays 11am to 10pm & Fridays and Saturdays 11am to 11pm

Our Favorite Dishes: Any of their 13 choices of Loaded Chicken Chunks ($7.99) and the BBQ Pulled Pork Pizza ($12.99 for a large)

Best Thing about Rival's: The restaurant's décor reflects the Border Battle that many Toledoans are a part of – rooting for either The Ohio State University or the University of Michigan – which is why he chose the name "Rival's." Jeremy is partial to Michigan, having grown up in Flint.

Little Known Fact about the Owner: Even though his motto used to be, "Always trust a fat guy when it comes to food," Jeremy recently lost 90 lbs through diet and exercise. He even created an entire 14" pizza with thin crust, light cheese, and tons of veggies that is only 1,000 calories for the whole thing. That's a mere 100 calories per slice!

Most Convenient Things about Rival's: That they match all competitors' coupons and have eight daily lunch specials from 11am-3pm for $5.99 each, drink included. Call them at 419-475-6505 or visit their website at www.RivalsPizza.org to learn more.

"WILL TO WIN" MANTRA EARNS SARAH BOYK TITLE OF 1st TEAM ALL-STATE

High fives were given up and down the hallways after our office learned that Sarah Boyk was recently named first team All State and first team All Cleveland in Ohio High School Field Hockey as a forward.

This news was particularly exciting since she plays for the smallest school in the single division for Ohio high school field hockey, Maumee Valley Country Day School.

Here are just a few of the accomplishments that helped her earn All State:

1. Scoring 29 goals her junior season breaking the single season school record of 22.

2. Helping her team reach the Elite 8 before losing to state champion Shaker Heights.

3. Ending her junior season as second on the all time school goal and assist record.

4. Scoring the winning goal on a break-away against the all state goalie of Hudson High School with two seconds left to win a sweet 16 playoff game 1-0.

5. Scoring 3 goals in a 3-1 victory over the Division II Michigan state champion Dexter.

"Sarah's success is due to hard work, talent, dedication, and great coaching," said her father, Chuck Boyk. "I am very proud of her. She is a shining example of someone who has the will to prepare to win. Sarah was fortunate to play travel soccer from ages 7-14 for Coach Jorge Diaz of Perrysburg Impact. He taught her work ethic, skills, and the joy of competition. She was surrounded by fantastically talented teammates who are now some of the best athletes in northwest Ohio."

In high school she was able to join the Pinnacle Field Hockey travel team in Ann Arbor, coached by former University of Michigan field hockey coach Nancy Cox. Under Coach Cox, Sarah learned top-level skills and appreciation for the strategic portions of the game. Her teammates are the top Michigan high school field hockey athletes and they travel to the top tournaments in the nation. This year's tournaments include the National Festival in Palm Springs, California; Disney in Orlando, Florida; and Northwestern in Illinois as they return as the defending champions.

Congratulations, Sarah!

CRAFTING FOR A CAUSE RAISES $1,500 FOR WOMEN IN NEED, GIVES CRAFTERS CHANCE TO PHOTOGRAPH THEIR PRODUCTS

The Sparrow's Nest receives a check from Charles E. Boyk

The Sparrow's Nest was the recipient of $1,500 after more than 30 local artists and crafters came together to sell items at the Boyk Law's Crafting for a Cause on November 7th.

The money will go to fund programs and services for the 70 to 90 women that Sparrow's Nest helps at any given time. The donation will also help with the cost of toiletries, books, supplies, and required items that are needed when the women attend vocational school.

"We were very happy to receive the money," said Linda Cunningham, Vice President of Philanthropy for Cherry Street Missions. "Thank you for thinking of us!"

Another fun perk that day was the opportunity for all of the crafters to jump into the Boyk Law Photo Booth and have their photos taken, many of whom opted to also bring in their products to be photographed.

"Sparrow's Nest has changed the lives of so many women in northwest Ohio," Chuck Boyk said. "We are proud of the local community for coming together to raise money for their cause and it was neat to see everyone document the great day with our photo booth."

Worker Is Hospitalized & Undergoes Surgery After Falling Through Roof Onto Concrete 30 ft. Below

Since our client was never provided with government-mandated fall protection, there was no way to prevent him from falling through a roof and onto the concrete 30 feet below. He sustained multiple injuries, including several fractures to his left arm and hand, and he broke his back in three places. Surgery and more than a week in the hospital were required to treat his injuries, including the implant of four pieces of permanent hardware in his wrist.

Company Fails To Move Equipment Properly, Traps Our Client Underneath, Causing Multiple Fractures

When the use of a forklift was no longer an option, a rigging company resorted to using improper techniques to move an autoloader, causing an accident that trapped our client underneath the massive machine.
