Our client is lucky to be alive after a head-on collision left him with numerous fractures in each arm and the need for surgical pin placements, rendering his hands temporarily useless. Nailサロン Visit Leaves Client Battling Infectious Disease & Need For Nail Removal

After a nail tech botched her manicure and cut her finger, our client developed MRSA, a serious staph infection that is thought to have subsequently led to the development of Secondary Reynaud’s disease, a disorder that affects the blood vessels and causes serious circulation problems in the limbs. Her nail was removed and she recently began seeing an infectious disease specialist, in the hope that she can undergo treatment for this disease that has no known cure.

Father & Two Children Seriously Injured After Other Driver Runs Stop Sign

A family of three was transported by EMS to a local hospital after being hit in their pickup truck. The father was treated for deep tissue bruising that may have contributed to a leg infection and his son spent the night in the hospital so that doctors could monitor his closed head injury. In addition to having to wear a cervical collar, the young boy also needed to see an ophthalmologist to treat the residual broken blood vessels in his eye. The boy’s wrist needed multiple nights in the hospital and had to undergo surgery to repair a perforated bowel and is still recovering.

Tribute to Toledoans: Cleaning “Angel” In The Business of Making Toledo Homes Sparkle

Most of Cheryl’s clients have been with her for 17 years and majority of them have come from word-of-mouth. Two of those clients were Mr. and Mrs. Dom Bruno, the parents of attorney Mike Bruno, before Mrs. Bruno passed away in 2009.

“I miss Mrs. Bruno,” Cheryl said. “I remember having conversations with her when she was sick. I just wanted her to feel comfortable. I told her to just take care of today. That is what I am here for – so you can relax and focus on today.”

“Having Cheryl at the house made life so much easier for my parents,” Mike Bruno said. “She was a calming force during a difficult time, a characteristic I learned while she was my client for two injury claims. I’ve always been happy to work with Cheryl and I am grateful for her support.”

It is that compassion and desire to communicate that has contributed to her success. Cheryl always makes it a point to discuss with clients exactly what needs to be done and she makes sure clients know that they can feel comfortable asking her not to touch certain fragile or special items, pets, or belongings.

“When you have a company, the best thing to do is to have a relationship,” Cheryl said. “Talk to people. Many of my clients, especially the seniors, want communication more than they do cleaning. I talk to them, ask them about their day, their family, their pets, and then I get down to my job.”

Heavenly Angels provides both initial cleaning services which focus on deep cleaning of things like appliances, windows, window sills, and walls, as well as regular maintenance cleaning that covers bathrooms, kitchens, vacuuming, dusting, and mopping, among other things.

In addition to cleaning, Cheryl also offers clients the option of having her organize and de-clutter their homes or even restructure furniture arrangements to best suit the personalities of the families and flow of the traffic through the house.

“When my clients come home, I want them to know that someone was there,” Cheryl said. “They can tell my touch. That’s what I do – I give Heavenly Touch. Heavenly Angels, heavenly touch.”

Cheryl offers free estimates for homes of any size, and appointments can be made by calling 567-249-6279.

Saturday's ride
To Support Bikes For Kids

For a boy who always wanted to be a pilot, an appointment to the Air Force Academy could not mean more than it did to this year’s Bower graduate, Thomas Heckman.

And when Thomas’ uncle, attorney Mike Bruno, heard the news, he was not too sure of how to react. But through it all, the Gow 3rd grader has never had a negative word to say.

It was Khylie’s stoicism that prompted her mom, Stacey Cuthings, to nominate the girl for the Air Force Academy. "Khylie is the most lovable child you’ll ever meet," Stacy said. "She never complains. She always tries to do her best and has never asked why she looks different than the other kids since her glasses were so thick. She is an awesome child and I love her more than she will ever know."

If you know of a child who exhibits Destiny and Khylie’s resemblance during times of adversity, please let us know by visiting www.bikeshorkids.com to register your child for the 2016 Bikes For Kids Foundation. Together we can work to recognize kids who make a difference in the lives of others and inspire others to be kind to their friends, family, classmates, and community.

Destiny was nominated by her mother, Melissa, for her steadfast strength after being diagnosed with monosomy and myelodysplastic syndrome (MDS) this past November, which progressed into acute myeloid leukemia (AML). Despite chemotherapy, radiation, and two bone marrow transplants that required Destiny to be isolated for 86 days in her hospital room, Destiny still kept her upbeat attitude.

"Destiny is one of the strongest people I know," Melissa Rivers said. "She has showed other children with cancer to keep fighting and that there is light at the end of that tunnel. After being stuck inside a hospital for almost three months, Destiny is ready to go outside and play like a 13-year-old should."

Another girl who has overcome many more obstacles than that of the average child was our second Bikes For Kids winner, Khylie Johnson.

Khylie was born with bilateral congenital cataracts and had her first eye surgery at six weeks old and her most recent surgery this past April, with other surgeries in between.

Even though the doctors at the Kellogg Eye Center at the University of Chicago have done wonders for Khylie’s vision, it is not easy having to wear thick glasses and to wonder when she will see clearly.

"I still can’t believe we rode as many miles as we did," Annette said. "Like my dad said, the kids put all the hard work in, biking long distances is all about mind over matter, but I’m still not sure my son muscles believe that!"

"We need to support the kids mentally, physically, and emotionally,” Stacy said. "I don’t know if I’m ready to do it all over again but I’m definitely ready to look forward and see how our boy does."

Cyclists Ride More Than 375 Miles In One Weekend To Support Bikes For Kids

To help spread the word about Bikes for Kids, Boyk Law sponsored a team of four riders to participate in this year’s Bike to the Bay, put on by the Ohio Bicyclists Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Rod Thompson, brother of Office Manager Leslie Romkiewicz; Annette Godlewski, Communications Director; and Jim and Amanda Kurt, Annette’s dad and sister, all rode their bicycles from Perrybrush High School to Pier Clinton High School on Saturday, June 21st before turning around and heading back to Perrybrush the next day. There were 150-mile routes that could be taken, but the Bikes For Kids team rode a total of 381.76 miles.

"I really can’t believe we rode as many miles as we did," Annette said. "Like my dad said, the kids put all the hard work in, biking long distances is all about mind over matter, but I’m still not sure my son muscles believe that!"

"We need to support the kids mentally, physically, and emotionally,” Stacy said. "I don’t know if I’m ready to do it all over again but I’m definitely ready to look forward and see how our boy does."

STUDENT & TEACHERS OF THE MONTH

Mr. Tucker is by far the best teacher I have ever seen," said Kyle Parsons, one of four students who nominated Mr. Tucker. “She works really well with kids, especially one-on-one, and she often after school tutoring, which is why she is my favorite. Mr. Tucker is probably one of the best teachers in the whole school. Thanks, Mr. Tucker."

Mr. Tucker was spendthrift and easy-eyed to learning the news. She gave Kyle a big hug and said, "Aye, thank you!"
