May’s Raving Fan of the Month

“I was thankful to Chuck Boyk for getting my car accident case finalized before the date that I thought it would be. They were very professional and I would come back for any other cases I may have in the future. I couldn’t have had it any better and I’m really glad I went with someone local. The insurance company wanted to give me like 17 cents per mile, but Chuck got me a good settlement.”

When Boyk Law client and Spaghetti Warehouse General Manager Dean Pickett learned about our Toledo VIP program, he jumped at the chance to invite members to his restaurant, which has been a staple in northwest Ohio for over 40 years.

“I get the Boyk Law newsletter so I get to see the benefits,” Dean said in his Toledo VIP video. “I was really engaged by what was going on with the businesses around downtown, especially the restaurants in the area. There aren’t many publications that focus on local entries and the stories behind them and I was excited to be a part of that.”

Spaghetti Warehouse, located at 42 S. Superior Street in Toledo, is offering $10 off of any purchase of $30 or more (excluding tax and alcohol). Simply show your Toledo VIP card or visit www.ToldeoVIP.com to order your free card and to view other members-only discounts available around town!

Sriracha sauce (optional) peppers, jalapenos, avocados, etc.)
cubed

1. Heat ½ Tablespoon oil in a large skillet over medium high heat. Place the tortillas in the skillet and brown, place it cheese-side-up on a serving plate.

2. Cook second tortilla the same way, using ¼ cup of cheese. Flip cheese-side-down into the first tortilla so that the edges are lined up.

3. Repeat with remaining tortillas and ingredients. Cut quesadillas into triangles and serve with salsa and sour cream.

Winning teacher: Matthew Cooper
Nominated by: Antoine "Tony" Lockett
Reason: "(Mr. Cooper) teaches things that aren’t just in the books. He taught us to always follow our dreams and always search for the truth."

Winning student: David Kirwin
Nominated by: Marissa Hurmans
Reason: "(David)’s attendance has improved greatly and he is working hard to complete his assignments and graduate in June. He is working with me toward getting a job in the community and has demonstrated a tremendous work ethic."

RECIPE: Uncle Buck’s Kickin’ Quesadilla

The perfect option for even the pickiest eaters; these quesadillas can be made to suit any taste. Or try them for breakfast by swapping out the steak or chicken with bacon and scrambled eggs!

INGREDIENTS:
- 2 tablespoons olive oil or butter
- Four 10 inch flour tortillas (burrito size)
- 2 cups shredded Monterrey Jack cheese
- 1 cup diced vegetables of your choice (corn, onions, tomatoes, bell peppers, jalapenos, avocados, etc.)
- 2 Tablespoons hot sauce or Sriracha sauce (optional)

INSTRUCTIONS:
1. Heat ½ Tablespoon oil in a large skillet over medium high heat. Place one tortilla on the skillet, sprinkle on ¼ cup of cheese and one tablespoon hot sauce, then top with half of the meat and half of the veggies of your choice. When cheese is melted and tortilla is golden brown, place it cheese-side-up on a serving plate.

2. Cook second tortilla the same way, using ¼ cup of cheese. Flip cheese-side-down into the first tortilla so that the edges are lined up.

3. Repeat with remaining tortillas and ingredients. Cut quesadillas into triangles and serve with salsa and sour cream.

October 7, 2014 was a day that changed Dennis Bohannon’s life forever. It was the 32-year-old’s first day on the job after responding to a Craigslist ad for roofing work. He asked his supervisor what he was supposed to do with the hammer he was given since there was nothing to attach it to and was told that it was “just for show.”

While Dennis was helping a coworker, the roof deck below him gave way and he fell nearly 20 feet to the concrete floor below – landing his head and fracturing his arm and back. Boyk Law contacted Dennis with his worker’s compensation claim, but we recently won for him the highest award allowed at a safety requirement violation hearing. The ruling in Dennis favor highlighted the multiple safety violations that caused his injuries, securing for him additional compensation while he continues to regain enough health to someday work again.

After two surgeries and countless doctor’s appointments over the past 18 months, Dennis sat down to tell us about continuing his journey to recovery for our CEB Stories videos series.

“All I remember is that there was a guy working next to me and we were rolling up 13 to 14 feet [roof] sections. During that time the roof underneath me gave out and I fell thirty feet to the concrete on the ground. I’m not really good at explaining the fall or how it felt; it’s just something that you try to erase out of your mind. It’s very difficult, very hard to relive it. I remember a supervisor and a couple of guys from the Jones-Hamilton building came down to see how I was doing and I remember them asking another supervisor, ‘What do I do next?’ because everyone was kind of freaking out and they didn’t know what to do. I am just laying there and they are yelling back and forth trying to call 911. When the ambulance came, it went to the wrong building since Jones-Hamilton is a big location so when they finally found me, it had been a while. I was just laying there on the ground for a real long time.

I broke my back in three sections. I fractured my vertebrae and also did some spinal damage. I had a herniated disc that actually popped my discs out and they were basically leaning against my nerves. I detached my wrist from my actual hand. I broke every single bone inside my hand – the future, the carpals, I could go on. Everyone else that is in your hand I basically broke. I know a lot of people can probably relate that when you actually get into an accident, you’re not thinking about attorneys until people say, ‘You know, you should call an attorney.’

So that’s what I did. I called Chuck, I actually googled Chuck. Chuck is the lawyer in Toledo that my name popped up so I just took that first one. I didn’t even think about it. I’m glad I took that chance.

Chuck came to my house the same day that I was released from the hospital. He spoke to me and took some information down and from there he took the whole thing into his hands. I know that when people look for attorneys, they probably think that they are supposed to do this and do that. Chuck is an injury attorney and that is what he deals with the most. I trust him doing everything with my case. Him, Cynthia, and everyone in the office. I wasn’t really expecting to call an attorney, because I didn’t know what to do. My mind just was all over the place.

That settlement check will put a smile on my face right now, including mine. Because I have been through a whole lot. You run into all different kinds of problems, all different kinds of money issues, but at the end it’s worth it, especially when you have a team that is there to support you. I think that’s the number one key. Chuck and everyone will talk to you and get you through each step. If you do run into any type of injury, whether it’s a car accident or a wrongful death or something, I would definitely recommend my attorney Chuck. He’s definitely worth it.”

Doctor Uses Wrong Equipment On Patient, Landing Her In The Intensive Care Unit

Our client was in a routine procedure but instead almost died after the anesthesiologist used a tube that was larger than what was indicated in the medical instructions. After the procedure, the great grandmother had to sit in the recovery room for six hours before her daughter demanded a chest x-ray and doctors discovered that her throat had been punctured and her lungs were filling with blood. She was transferred to the ICU, spent two weeks in the hospital, and then had to spend an additional two weeks at a nursing home, before being released to continue therapy at home and now faces permanent damage.

Driver Struck While In Funeral Procession Fractures Back In Car Accident

Our client was a front seat passenger in a car that was part of a funeral procession when another driver proceeded through the intersection and t-boned our client’s door. He was taken by ambulance to a local emergency room where he underwent x-rays and a CT scan of his cheek. After his back pain did not subside, a neurologist diagnosed him with fractured discs in his back for which he is still undergoing physical therapy.

City of Toledo Ignores Reports of Large Pothole, Causes Accident That Breaks Woman’s Jaw

The City of Toledo passed over the three-foot-wide, 10 inch deep pothole that blew out our client’s tire, causing her to lose control of her car and crash into a bridge. The impact fractured her jaw in three places and left her hospitalized for another day. Our client had to have hardware surgically implanted into her jaw and recently had a second surgery to remove the hardware.

Bikes for Kids will be making the rides of 150 kids a little safer this summer by handing out free helmets at the Boyk Law Bike Safety Day.

Where: Wersell’s Bike and Ski Shop, 2860 W. Central Avenue, Toledo, OH 43606

When: Saturday, May 21st from 2pm to 4pm

Who will be there: Toledo Police Officers, area pediatricians and nurses, Toledo Fire and Rescue, and bicycle experts, Jill and Kathy Wersell.

Why: To teach kids all about bicycle safety by answering questions, giving demonstrations, and providing helmet fittings. Free helmets will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

The helmets were made possible through a grant from the Ohio Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) and the Ohio Department of Transportation, as part of their “Put a Lid on It! Prevent Before You Pedal!” campaign. Boyk Law’s Bike Safety Day coincides with Bike Helmet Safety Awareness Week, which provides one bicycle to a deserving child each week of summer from June 6th to August 15th. Bikes for Kids is asking parents, teachers, caregivers, and loved ones to recognize a child who has made a difference in the life of someone else by nominating them to receive a free bicycle from Wersell’s Bike Shop.

Boyk Law Bike Safety Day will also be the official start of the 2016 Bikes for Kids program, which provides one bicycle to a deserving child each week of summer from June 6th to August 15th. Bikes for Kids is asking parents, teachers, caregivers, and loved ones to recognize a child who has made a difference in the life of someone else by nominating them to receive a free bicycle from Wersell’s Bike Shop.
