WANDA BUTTS NAMED ONE OF CNN'S TOP 10 HEROES OF 2012

Turning tragedy into triumph is the story of Wanda Butts and The Josh Project. When Wanda's son, Josh, drowned in 2006, having little to no water safety experience, Wanda decided to take water safety and education into her own hands by starting The Josh Project. With many children now being educated and their lives saved from drowning, Wanda's impact on the community is not going unnoticed.

CNN has recently released the names and stories of the 10 individuals who have made it to their Top 10 Heroes of 2012, with Wanda Butts, from Toledo, Ohio being one of them. These 10 heroes are from all across the world and are in the running to win $250,000 for their organization.

If you are a member of the Northwest Ohio and Southeast Michigan community or have been at one point in time, then this message is for you. Voters can go to CNNheroes.com and cast their vote up to 10 times per day for the person and organization they would like to see win. We would like to encourage all of you to show support for your area and for a hero in our own region by voting for Wanda Butts and The Josh Project!

Why you should vote: the prize money won would be used to help people in our own area. With the money, Wanda and The Josh Project would like to build an indoor aquatic complex that could host swim meets, offer lessons, provide water safety education, have a therapy pool and hopefully even have waterslides! They would also like to establish a scholarship fund that would be made available to other water safety programs that are happening around the country and possibly even around the world. This would increase the impact of The Josh

Project and make water safety available to more children and, in turn, save many more lives.

As members of the Northwest Ohio and Southeast Michigan community, we need you to not only vote, but to please help us spread the word. Voting is simple. Go to <http://www.cnnheroes.com> and click on "vote now." Choose Wanda Butts as your hero and cast your vote. Remember, you can vote 10 times every day. So spread the word and vote for a hero in our own community.

CASES OF INTEREST: OCTOBER 2012

WOMAN THROWN FROM ATV AFTER DOG RAN OUT IN FRONT OF HER

Our client was riding on her ATV when the neighbor's dog darted out in front of her. She then hit the dog which caused her to flip and be thrown from the ATV. She was then life lighted to a local hospital where she was treated for seven broken ribs, a concussion, punctured lung, and multiple blood clots. She has developed a life threatening clotting disorder and has to remain on medication to prevent a stroke.

CAR ACCIDENT SENDS PREGNANT PASSENGER TO HOSPITAL

Our client was a passenger in her boyfriend's vehicle when they were hit head on when the other vehicle failed to yield at a left hand turn. Our client was eight months pregnant at the time of the accident and was rushed to a local hospital. She had to stay at the hospital for two days to monitor the baby. She also suffered from a broken left arm and had to have stitches on her face. This accident made it impossible for her to work and take care of herself. She may have to have surgery following the birth of her child.

HEAD-ON COLLISION CAUSES CLIENT TO BE SENT TO TWO HOSPITALS & MONTHS OF THERAPY

Our 26 year old client was severely injured when a car failed to stop at a stop sign. This accident took place just outside Hicksville, Ohio, which is near Ft. Wayne, Indiana. Our client had to be extracted from his vehicle and then life flighted to Parkview Regional Center in Ft. Wayne. Our client broke his jaw in three different places, shattered his right leg from the shin down, and has suffered head trauma. Our client was in an induced coma for several days until the swelling in his brain went down. He was then transferred to The University of Toledo Medical Center where he is continuing to recover. He still has his jaw wired, trachea/feeding tube, and many months of physical therapy ahead of him.
