

Family files suit after firetruck hits, kills Ohio woman

Posted: Wednesday, December 14, 2016 12:45 pm

TIFFIN, Ohio (AP) — The family of an Ohio woman struck and killed by a firetruck that was backing up after firefighters rescued two people from a reservoir have filed a lawsuit against the volunteer fire department and the driver.

Green Springs firefighters were responding in June to a capsized boat and had pulled two people from the water when one of the firefighters began backing up the truck.