Taxotere Chemotherapy Drug Linked To Permanent Hair Loss

Most people who are dealing with a cancer diagnosis are so worried about beating the disease that they are willing to sacrifice their hair while going through chemotherapy. What some patients were never warned about, however, is that one chemo drug could leave patients without any hair at all even after treatment has ended.

Taxotere, manufactured by Sanofi-Aventis, is a widely-used chemotherapy drug to treat breast cancer and other forms of cancer. The drug is administered intravenously to prevent cancer cells from spreading. While Taxotere can be effective in treating patients diagnosed with cancer, lawsuits are being filed against Sanofi-Aventis regarding Taxotere’s link to permanent hair loss. Reports reveal that manufacturer knew about the dangers of Taxotere but failed to mention it to patients and the medical community.

Who may have a lawsuit? Cancer patients who are dealing with permanent hair loss after undergoing chemotherapy.

I recently underwent chemo but my hair hasn’t grown back yet. How long should I wait?

While each individual is different, it’s important to start the medical review as soon as possible because important deadlines are always arising in drug and device litigation. The attorneys at Boyk Law can create a reasonable timeline for you. Call our office at 888-888-2110 or confidentially provide your information by visiting www.isitalawsuit.com to have an attorney begin the process for you.

419 Taxos offer Taco Top Spots where you can get any 10 tacos for $25, 15 for $36, or 20 for $45. Jorge has invited Boyk Bulletin readers to bring in a copy of this article for one free taco OR one free cheese dip as a thank you for supporting Toledo owned and operated establishments. You won’t be disappointed!
TPS Proud Celebrates Winners at Harvard Elementary

Boyk Law’s TPS Proud Student and Teacher of the Month contest awarded students at Harvard Elementary, as part of our program aimed at highlighting the best of Toledo Public Schools. Harvard students created 54 teacher appreciation videos and the kids were adorable as they described on camera how important their teachers are to them.

Winning Teacher: Sarah Smith
Nominated by: Hazel Broadway

Hazel’s nomination: “The gym teacher Ms. Smith is cool, she treats us with full respect, and she’s really nice. For the rest of my life I’ll remember that she taught me to be good, not be bad, do what you’re supposed to do and to actually do push-ups instead of just laying down. She is beautiful just the way she is.”

Student Winner: Ragan Smith
Nominated by:Dig Drumender

Ragan’s nomination: “Ragan is phenomenal. She is the captain of the Safety Patrol at Harvard. She graciously accepted the challenge, attended camp in the full, and selected and trained her peers to help on the team. She created weekly schedules for the Safety Patrol, monitored every morning and afternoon, conducted monthly meetings, and recruited and trained new members. Ragan has created a safe environment for all students arriving and dismissing students at Harvard. She is incredibly organized and motivated, and she has all of the qualities of an exemplary leader, especially considering she is only in 8th grade. Ragan is just an awesome kid. She is kind, well-liked, cares about others and is extremely compassionate. Ragan is just a doll.”

RECIPE:

Guy’s Greek Orzo Salad

INGREDIENTS

- ¾ cups orzo (9 oz)
- 8 oz. feta cheese, cubed
- 1 cup chopped roma tomatoes
- 1 cup chopped pitted kalamata olives
- 1 tablespoon fresh basil
- 1 tablespoon fresh flat-leaf parsley
- 1/3 cup olive oil
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice, garlic, and oregano. Shake vigorously to combine. Pour dressing over pasta mixture; toss to coat. Season to taste with salt and ground black pepper.

DIRECTIONS

1. Cook orzo in salted water according to package directions; drain. Rinse with cold water; drain again. Transfer pasta to a large bowl.
2. Add feta, tomatoes, olives, basil, and parsley to the chilled pasta; stir to combine.
3. In a jar with a tight fit lid, place olive oil, lemon juice, garlic, and oregano. Shake vigorously to combine. Pour dressing over pasta mixture; toss to coat. Season to taste with salt and ground black pepper.

Bikes For Kids Winners Brighten The Summer

The Bikes for Kids program provides one bicycle to a deserving child each week of summer, until August 22nd. Bikes for Kids is asking parents, teachers, caregivers, and loved ones to recognize a child who has made a difference in the life of someone else by nominating them to receive a free bicycle from Wersell’s Bike Shop, compliments of Boyk Law. Wersell’s will be donating a helmet and a lock to each winner. While there are no specific guidelines on what makes a nominee deserving of a new bike, we encourage nominators to think about any kind things that the child has done for others, or how the child has positively impacted his or her family, friends, community, or classroom.

Week #2 – Tre Paige, 9
Nominated by: Stacey Paige, Tre’s mother

Stacey’s nomination: “Tre is an amazing boy who lives very well outside and has such a big heart. Financially it’s been a struggle to afford a bike his size for him due to medical expenses we face after his son was diagnosed with a kidney failure which required him to have a kidney transplant and his wife was his donor, since then we have been financially strapped. Tre is so deserving of a bike!”

Week #3 – Caydence Chevalier, 6
Nominated by: Gail Chevalier, Caydence’s grandmother

Gail’s nomination: “Caydence just completed her first grade year and I am proud to say with flying colors. In November of 2017 her Dad Josh had me to spine surgery which left him unable to work anymore, and at this point there is a great possibility that he will have to have another surgery in the near future. Caydence has been a trooper through all of this helping her family with simple chores and keeping her grades up at school. Caydence has been a big help to her dad just by doing little things that he can no longer do. She plays with her 4-year-old sister to help keep her occupied while her Mom works. She loves to ‘Teach her sister the things that she has learned in school as well. I certainly hope that the gift of learning and sharing she shows carry on throughout her lifetime.”

Week #4 – Charles Beiselle, 15
Nominated by: Beth Incorvaia, BSW, LSW – Charles’ Social Worker

Beth’s nomination: “Charles is a very intelligent, artsy and kind young man who attends Maritime academy. Charles has a rough 3 years, which include losing his dad and older sister, both to overdoses. Charles has been deeply impacted by the loss and suffers with grief and depression. Charles still goes to school and gives his heart, getting high marks in school and I believe making honours. Charles wanted to join the military and wants to make this his career goal. With this opportunity to have a bike, this would allow him to exercise and get in shape for his entry into the military. If you choose Charles, you couldn’t select a nicer, kinder more thoughtful and deserving young man. He does not know I am submitting this, but I know would be most grateful for the opportunity.”

Man Shot While On The Job, Hospitalized After Two Surgeries

Our client was making a delivery to an Ann Arbor pharmacy when he was shot in the stomach by someone on the street. He had emergency surgery before a week-long hospital stay but had to undergo two more surgeries and additional hospitalizations to treat a severe infection. We are helping the client with both the worker’s compensation portion of the case but also the injury aspect as well as he continues his long road to recovery.

Car Accident While On The Job Leaves Client With A Broken Hip

Boyk Law is helping our client with both his worker’s compensation claim and his auto accident claim after he was injured in a car wreck while on the job. He had to be life-flighted to the Cincinnati trauma hospital where it was discovered that his hip was fractured. He is walking with a walker as he undergoes additional treatment from his orthopedic doctor while they determine the next stages of his care.

Taxotere Chemotherapy Drug Linked To Permanent Hair Loss

Most people who are dealing with a cancer diagnosis are so worried about beating the disease that they are willing to sacrifice their hair while going through chemotherapy. What some patients were never warned about, however, is that one chemo drug could leave patients without any hair at all after even treatment has ended.

Taxotere, manufactured by Sanofi-Aventis, is a widely-used chemotherapy drug to treat breast cancer and other forms of cancer. The drug is administered intravenously to prevent cancer cells from spreading. While Taxotere can be effective in treating patients diagnosed with cancer, lawsuits are being filed against Sanofi-Aventis regarding Taxotere’s link to permanent hair loss. Reports reveal that most patients were not fully warned about the dangers of Taxotere but failed to mention it to patients and the medical community.

Who may have a lawsuit? Cancer patients who are dealing with permanent hair loss after undergoing chemotherapy.

I recently underwent chemo but my hair hasn’t grown back yet. How long should I wait? While each individual is different, it is important to start the medical review as soon as possible as important deadlines are always present in drug and device litigation. It’s apparent the moment you walk into 419 Tacos that the owner put a lot of time and effort into creating the perfect atmosphere. Underrated dishes complement the newly-renovated space which is welcoming to people of any age, in any small group. But even more noticeable is the smell of fresh tortillas (they are made on-site by hand each day) and authentic Mexican food all made completely from scratch.

419 Tacos recently opened at 3309 N. Holland Sylvania in Toledo, the former location of El Maizal. While they have only been open for a few months, they already have a cult-like following; thanks to owner and longtime soccer coach, Jorge Diaz.

“During his career, Jorge has helped thousands of kids not only hone their soccer skills, but more importantly, learn to be good sports who play with dedication,” Attorney Chuck Boyk said. “He’s been a trusted friend for over 10 years. He’s a decorated soccer champion and has always focused on playing the game honestly and with integrity and he’s brought those same characteristics into 419 Tacos.”

Prices are fair, the food is fantastic, and the wait staff is friendly and accommodating. Here are a few of our favorite dishes from their extensive menu:

Mexican Street Tacos ($2.50 - $3.50 each) – A 419 Taco specialty, it’s hard to find a more authentic taco in northwest Ohio. Favorites include grilled steak, chorizo (Mexican sausage), and shredded pork, but with 10 different options it can be hard to choose. Luckily Jorge has invited Boyk Bulletin readers to bring in a copy of this article for one free taco OR one free cheese dip as a thank you for supporting Toledo owned and operated establishments. You won’t be disappointed!

Al pastor Tacos ($7.50) – Since guests have the option of making an al pastor into a bowl, the Alpastor is a favorite because of the marinated pork with pineapple and onions. It’s served over a bed of rice with lettuce, tomatoes, avocado, cheese, and Mexican sour cream.

Chile Rellenos ($8) – The dish comes with two roasted poblano peppers stuffed with cheese, lightly fried in an egg batter, then topped with red sauce. They have a bit of a kick but aren’t too spicy and are best with ground beef added (only $1 more).

419 Tacos offers Taco Ray Specials where you can get any 10 tacos for $25, 15 for $36, or 20 for $45. Autofocused 10 tacos for $25, 15 for $36, or 20 for $45.
